

Developing the Energy Efficiency Contractors framework to support Net Zero

Mary Mitchell
Strategic Programme Manager
Scotland Excel

Portfolio of collaborative frameworks = £2bn

Transport & Environment

Social Care

Corporate &
ICT

Construction

- Supporting key policy objectives of obtaining Net Zero by 2045.

- Promoting competitive responses to the challenge
- Transition to Energy Skills matrix,
- Working to Standards

- Improving quality, capacity and skills with the industry

Enhanced Scope and Technical Specification

- Structured into 4 core lots which cover:
 - Professional Services
 - Building Fabric Measures
 - Heating, Hot Water and Ventilation Measures
 - Renewables and Energy Storage Measures
- Technical Specification has been developed includes the recent enhancements to PAS2030 and incorporates PAS2035
- Carbon Reduction & Environmental Impact - Technical question and assessment supported by Zero Waste Scotland

Cross Sector Collaboration

- Development of Technical Specification
- Carbon Reduction & Environmental Impact - Technical question and assessment
- Development of the Strategy, enhanced scope and lotting structure

- Supporting key policy objectives of obtaining Net Zero by 2045.
- Promoting competition
- Delivery Quality Works and the transition to Energy Skills matrix
- Improving the quality and skills within the industry

Energy Efficiency Contractors

POLICY

SKILLS

QUALITY

The Journey to Net Zero

- Enabler of Scottish Government's aspiration to attain Net Zero by 2045
- Tackling fuel poverty and reduce carbon emissions
- Efficient Route to market for funded works
- Localised service capability

Thank You

Mary Mitchell
Scotland Excel
Strategic Programme Manager
Mary.Mitchell@Scotland-Excel.org.uk